Maya Luna Description

Maya Luna is a small ecological hotel at the Caribbean coast of Mexico. One of the last left, most beautiful, living coral reefs in the world passes just in front of the beach. This unspoiled site is far away from the crowded places of Mexican mass tourism. Maya Luna offers excellent opportunities for diving, snorkelling, fishing and watching exotic bird life. You can also walk or horse ride into the adjacent natural reserve of mangrove woods to explore recently discovered temples of the ancient Maya culture.
